

Operational Notice

OAM

Number: 09/2020

Date of issue: 26.03.2020.

Title: Revalidation of Medical (class 2 and LAPL) and AME certificates

OAM applicable to:

- Holders of medical certificates which are issued by the CAD Republic of Serbia
- Holders of AME certificates which are issued by the CAD Republic of Serbia

In accordance with newly situation regarding the Coronavirus (COVID-2019), the decisions and recommendations of the Government of the Republic of Serbia, Article 14, paragraph 4 of the common rules in the field of civil aviation and establishing a European Union Aviation Safety Agency ("RS Official Gazette" No. 23 / 12 and 104/17) and by decision of the Directorate No 6/2-03-0008/2020-0058 valid from date 26.03.2020, regarding revalidation of medical and AME certificates the CAD will apply following decisions :

1. The period of validity of Class 2 and LAPL medical certificates shall be automatically extended for the period of 4 months from expiry date in the certificate, providing there are no limitations endorsed other than visual ones.
2. The period of validity of aeromedical examiner certificates with privileges to conduct aeromedical examinations and assessments for Class 2 and LAPL medical certificates shall be automatically extended for the period of 4 months from expiry date in the certificate.
3. This operational notice will apply to all medical and AME certificates, stated in items 1. and 2., that expire before 31.07.2020.

This operational notice is effective from 26/03/2020.

All holders of medical certificates issued by the CAD of the Republic of Serbia are obliged to carry this notice in print or electronic format so that they can exercise their privileges.

CAD Republic of Serbia
Air Operations, Airworthiness and Flight Crew Licencing Division